

BREAKING NEWS!!

We are excited to inform you that La Tecnocarta has joined hands with one of the most prestigious and long-established printing presses in France: Luquet & Duranton.

A family business since 1898, Luquet & Duranton is certified by the French government and specialized in management documents and archive systems for the health sector. Luquet & Duranton manufactures Patient Files, Medical Record filing folders, X Ray jackets and accessories, Medical imaging folders with CD pouch, Tabbing products compatible with most filing systems, Hanging filing systems, adhesive labels, bracelets and much more all dedicated to the medical world (hospitals and clinics)! Using specific material like the Polypap brand a combined paper and polyester mix to give barrier properties and tear-resistant efficiency.

All products can be customized in any language, in different colours and logos offering a tailored product for demanding customers.

Thanks to the most modern digital presses, we can offer also small quantities without sacrificing anything to quality or price.

Please contact me to find out more about what we can do for you and for your customers to give them an added value to their organization and image.
